exempt from state and local income taxes.

Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by these entities and has concluded that as of June 30, 2013, there were no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken. Accordingly, no interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions have been accrued in the accompanying combined financial statements.

LDF and EWLTP are subject to audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, no audits for any tax periods are currently in progress. Management believes that both entities are no longer subject to income tax examinations for years ended on or prior to June 30, 2009 under federal and New York tax jurisdictions.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

to minority law students. Its goal is to increase African-American representation in law schools and the legal profession and to help increase the number of African-American attorneys working in the public interest to help achieve civil rights for all.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

attorneys working in the public interest to help achieve civil rights for all.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: A draft of form 990 is prepared by the Finance Department and reviewed by the CFO. Copies are then sent to Mitchell & Titus LLP for their review and comments. Once this is done, the Board of Directors has the opportunity to review and give comments on the 990. The final draft is then reviewed by Mitchell & Titus LLP for filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12: The Conflict of Interest Policy provides that the board members and officers complete a questionnaire and forward the completed document to the office of the President and Director-Counsel (CEO). The President reviews the completed questionnaires for completeness, responsiveness and potential conflicts of interest. The President seeks the advise and counsel of the senior counsel with respect to further steps necessary to apprise the board of potential conflicts of interest appearing on the questionnaires. In the event of recognized conflicts of interest, the President contacts the involved board member to assure his or her compliance with recusal requirements prior to any action affected by such conflict of interest. The LDF by-laws reserve the authority for the board to review the questionnaires annually. The board of the Earl Warren Legal Training Program, Inc. has adopted this policy from its affiliate, the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a: LDF By-laws permit payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered by officers and employees of the corporation. Pursuant to this authority, the Board created a Compensation Committee with the express purpose to review, on behalf of the Board, the compensation of the President & Director-Counsel (CEO). The Compensation Committee retained independent experts to prepare a formal study and recommendation of the reasonableness of the President's compensation. The report was received by the Committee and a determination was made that the study supported the reasonableness of the President's compensation. The Compensation Committee reported the results of the study and its determination to the Board in an executive session held on June 26, 2009 with a quorum present. After discussion and consensus reached, the Board concurred with the recommendation and took informal action to express its favorable opinion of the compensation, without a vote. A copy of the independent study was mailed to all board members.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: LDF does not make its governance documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements readily available upon request, but will also do so based upon a discretionary determination by its CFO and/or Senior Counsel of the requesting individual's or entity's "need to know" such information. For example, upon request, financial statements are routinely made available to vendors, potential funders and entities with which LDF will have common business
